Soothsayer Serenades is provocation for moving together while apart, without proof of presence.
An offline dance class or walk.

Each Wednesday, across 5 weeks a new playlist and provocation will be released.

There will be no zoom meet up, no insta live - just the promise to move together. Leave the trace where you wish in the real world.

Soothsayer is a person who can predict the future by magical, intuitive or even rational means - a provocation to this moving-together-ness is that we become that sage.
